Graduate Diploma in Education

BRANDON UNIVERSITY

Founded 1899

Faculty of Education

Brandon University
270-18th Street
Brandon MB Canada
R7A 6A9

PURPOSE

The Graduate Diploma in Education serves two purposes. First, it allows students to undertake advanced course work for general interest, or for upgrading their knowledge-base for salary classification purposes. Second, it also permits students to qualify for special certificates offered by the provincial department of education and youth without being registered in a master's program.

LENGTH

The Graduate Diploma in Education consists of 30 credit hours of course work.

PROGRAM FORMAT

The program consists of:

- ❖ 12 credit hours of course work within a specialization
- ❖ 9 credit hours of required Core course work
- ❖ 9 credit hours of free electives.

(These courses may be within the student's area of specialization.)

SPECIALIZATIONS

There are four specializations that are offered regularly:

- ❖ Curriculum and Instruction
- ❖ Educational Administration
- ❖ Guidance and Counselling
- ❖ Special Education

*When funding and faculty resources allow it, other specializations may be offered.

OTHER REGULATIONS

- ❖ 24 cr. hrs. of course work must be at the 700 level.
- ❖ All non-700 level course work must be approved by the chair of the appropriate department.
- ❖ Credit for approved courses taken more than seven (7) years before the date of graduation will be denied.
- ❖ All program advising will be done by the Graduate Studies Office. Program changes will require the approval of the Chair of Graduate Studies.
- ❖ Students may earn up to 3 credits for professional development sessions they have attended, within the past 2 years.
