

The Headhunters

Web Site Description: “The Headhunters is a leading recruitment firm serving North America. We’re called “The Headhunters” for a reason—we find the talent that no one else can, uncovering top candidates through dedicated headhunting and sourcing. With a focus on finding the right fit, we help our clients grow their businesses by building successful teams. We were originally founded in 2009 and joined forces with HIRE Technologies and its family of brands in 2020. Our recruitment consultants are experts in matching high performing job seekers with employers of choice across North America.”
