

BU Journal of Graduate Studies in Education

ABOUT THE JOURNAL

Our publication purposes are as follows:

- to contribute to the educational research literature and global knowledge
- to model good examples of research and writing
- to encourage BU graduate students to write and submit academic papers
- to profile and promote research by BU graduate students and by Faculty of Education professors at BU and UCN
- to profile outstanding articles by Bachelor of Education students at BU

We invite manuscripts from the following scholars:

- current and past graduate students from BU's Faculty of Education
 - refereed articles, reviewed by at least 2 reviewers approved by the editorial committee scholarly papers dealing with a specific issues in education 2500 to 5000 words, including the title, abstract, and list of references
 - special interest papers, reviewed by the journal editor
papers of practical interest (such as program proposals), including a literature base 1500 to 3000 words, including the title and list of references
 - opinion papers, reviewed by the journal editor focus on current issues in education maximum 1000 words
 - research reports, reviewed by the journal editor
reports of educational research completed or in progress 2500 to 5000 words
- Faculty of Education professors at BU and UCN
 - research reports, reviewed by at least 2 external reviewers approved by the editorial committee educational research completed or in progress
2500 to 5000 words
- Bachelor of Education students at BU
 - professor-recommended papers, reviewed by the journal editor and at least 1 committee member topics of interest to pre-service teachers
2000 to 3000 words

Please write for the following audience:

- graduate students
- undergraduate students
- Faculty of Education staff
- other educational stakeholders

Focus your manuscript on one of the following topics:

- educational issues in general
- rural, northern, and Indigenous issues in particular
- the four graduate program themes:
 - educational administration
 - curriculum and pedagogy
 - guidance and counselling
 - inclusive education

As of 2013, all articles in the BU Journal of Graduate Studies in Education are indexed on the ERIC (Educational Resources Information Center) database.

Submit your manuscript as follows:

- Use APA (7th edition) format and referencing.
- Send the manuscript by email as a Word attachment to our editor, Dr. Marion Terry:
terry@brandonu.ca