

Colin Mehmel

Colin Mehmel is active in the Winnipeg area as a freelance clarinetist, clinician and Feldenkrais Practitioner-in-training. Colin holds music degrees from Michigan State University (M.M.) and the University of Manitoba (B.Mus), where he was fortunate to study with Dr. Caroline Hartig (MSU) and Naoum Gomon (U of M).

Colin is currently studying the Feldenkrais Method at the Institute for the Study of Somatic Education in Chicago Illinois. He attained his certification to teach Feldenkrais Awareness Through Movement Lessons in 2011, and he now teaches a weekly ATM class at the University of Manitoba through the Marcel A. Desautels Faculty of Music Division of Preparatory Studies.

In addition to teaching and performing, Colin pursues comparative research in clarinet pedagogy, and actively applies his Feldenkrais training to his research and teaching. After completing his Feldenkrais certification, Colin plans to pursue his education and research at the doctoral level.
