

48:663 Graduate seminar in science – Dr Greenwood & Dr Hill

Preliminary sequence of seminars, term 1, 2017-2018

Unless otherwise advised, ALL talks are at 4:30pm on a Friday in room BB 4-47

An attendance roll for MELS students will be taken at each seminar. Be on time.

22-Sept	Dr. Greenwood & Dr. Hill	Introductory Talk
29-Sept	No talk scheduled
6-Oct	Dr. Frank Brown (Pre-recorded*) University of Utah	The Omo-Turkana Basin, East Africa—a treasury of history.
13-Oct	Dr. J.F. Basinger University of Saskatchewan, Dept. of Geological Sciences	Polar fossils, polar environmental evolution, and climate change.
20-Oct	Dr. Jeff Williams Brandon University, Dept. of Mathematics & Computer Science	A light approach to gravity.
27-Oct	No talk scheduled
3-Nov	Dr. Gautam Srivastava Brandon University, Dept. of Mathematics & Computer Science	Measuring twitter user influence through a discrete event.
10-Nov	No talk scheduled (study break week – no classes scheduled)
17-Nov	Dr. Emily Holland Brandon University, Dept. of Anthropology	From there to here: how research informs practice (and vice versa) in biological anthropology.
24-Nov	Dr. Rong-Yu Li Brandon University, Dept. of Geology	Reconstruction of a fossil food web and a case study from the Upper Cretaceous of Manitoba.
1-Dec	MELS students	NB: We're planning to have all 1 st year MELS students on a single 'research talks day' once classes for Term 1 end
8-Dec	contingency for MELS	