

Science Seminar Series

1st Term 2019-2020

Unless otherwise advised ALL talks are at 4:30pm on a Thursday in Room BB 4-47

Sept 19	Dr. Bing Huang Nanjing Institute of Geology and Paleontology, Chinese Academy of Sciences	The end Ordovician mass extinction—evidences from brachiopods
Sept 26	Dr. Rory Lucyshyn-Wright Dept. of Mathematics &amp; Computer Science, Brandon University	Category theory: The mathematics of structure and the structure of mathematics
Oct 3	Dr. John Moraros Faculty of Health Studies, Brandon University	Factors associated with self-reported sexually transmitted infections among postsecondary students in Canada
Oct 10	Dr. Christopher Malcolm Dept. of Geography &amp; Environment Brandon University	Quality of life, perception of fishing conditions and attitudes toward fisheries management of artisanal, small-scale fishers along the Bahía de Banderas coast, Jalisco, Mexico.
Oct 17	Dr. Terence McGonigle Dept. of Biology Brandon University	Soil, plant, and associated microbes: process defines scale in time and space
Oct 24	Mr. Masoud Goharrokhi PhD Candidate, Department of Agriculture and Food Sciences, University of Manitoba	TBA
Oct 31	Dr. Sarah Plosker Dept. of Mathematics &amp; Computer Science, Brandon University	How superpositioned is my quantum state?
Nov 7	Dr. Derrek Eberts Dept. of Geography &amp; Environment Brandon University	TBA
Nov 21	MELS Student Presentations	Schedule to be announced
Nov 28	MELS Student Presentations	Schedule to be announced.